Elizabeth Eames, who married Edward Wilder of Hingham, was baptized in 1624. She was the daughter of Anthony and Margery Eames of Hingham. Anthony was born before 1600 in Fordington, St. George, Dorchester, England, where he was a churchwarden in 1622, 1627, and 1631. He came to Charlestown, Mass., between 1631 and 1634, and removed to Hingham in 1636.

His father was probably Thomas Eames who lived in Fordington from 1577 to 1618. His wife was Millicent. Note that Anthony named one of his daughters Millesaint, also.
